This day is about more than breaking targets; it's about impacting the lives of children of those who sacrificed so much. Not only will you get to experience a shooting experience unlike any other in the area but you'll get the satisfaction of knowing you're helping this meaningful cause. This event is executed by the St. Louis chapter of Folds of Honor, helping to benefit the communities of St. Louis and Southern Illinois.

Here is how the day of shooting will look: Starting at 11:00, you'll have an opportunity to team up with another shooter and compete in a Flurry competition. If you haven't shot one, its a fast paced team event where you're loading and shooting as fast as possible to break the most targets. It's a ton of fun and a possible side bet or two has been know to take place. NOTE: The Flurry is not mandatory. After the Flurry concludes, we'll proceed to 2 different sporting clays courses for a 4-shooter team competition. Prized will be provided for each course.

EVENT SCHEDULE:

- 10:00 Registration opens
- 11:00 Flurry competition begins
- 12:00 Flurry concludes - lunch served to flurry participants.
- 12:30 Presentation of colors & playing of National Anthem
- 1:00 Safety talk - Competition begins
- 3:30 Competition ends
- 4:00 Presentation from speakers / Dinner / Awards
- 4:30 Auction begins
- 5:30 Event closes
