

What began nearly 50 years ago as a vision has today developed into a full-blown national celebration. Indeed, like the sports it represents, National Hunting & Fishing Day has become a deep-rooted tradition that annually serves to introduce millions of Americans to the outdoor sports.

At thousands of NHF Day events held across the nation each year, the focus is not just on insuring a bright future for the outdoor sports, but also on recognizing the past conservation efforts and achievements of American sports men and women.

The following local organizations will be selling food and beverages at this year's event.

- Alton VFW Post 1308
Fish Fry
- Brighton Fire Department
Bar-b-que
- Southwestern Soccer Group
Walking Tacos
- Pioneer Karmel Korn
Caramel Corn & Pork skins

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
NO ADMISSION CHARGE

FREE PARKING
PARKING BY TROOP #39

Attendees of the National Hunting & Fishing Day at NILO Farms ("NHF Day Event") will be eligible to participate in drawings for Winchester merchandise. NO PURCHASE NECESSARY TO ENTER OR WIN. Open to U.S. residents 21 years or older.
